Devon SEND improvement plan

Between 23 and 25 May 2022, Ofsted and the Care Quality Commission (CQC) revisited Devon Local Area to decide whether sufficient progress had been made in addressing each of the areas of significant weakness (ASW) detailed in the inspection in December 2018.

This Improvement Plan, which will be monitored by the Department for Education and NHS England, will focus specifically on improvements in the four areas of weakness set out in the inspection findings:

- A. Strategy – The fact that strategic plans and the local area’s SEND arrangements are not embedded or widely understood by stakeholders, including schools, settings, staff, and parents.
- B. Communications – The significant concerns that were reported about communication with key stakeholders, particularly with parents and families.
- C. EHC Plans Timeliness and Quality – The time it takes to issue Education, Health, and Care (EHC) plans and the variable quality of these plans.
- D. Autism – Weaknesses in the identification, assessment, diagnosis and support of those children and young people with autism spectrum disorder (ASD).

Schools' legal duties relating to special educational needs and disability (SEND)

All schools have clear duties in regard to the support of children and young people with special educational needs (SEN) and disabilities under the Children and Families Act 2014 and SEN and Disability Code of Practice 2015.

Schools must 'have regard' to the code. This means that they should do what it says or be able to explain why they have not done so, and what alternative action has been taken. The law is underpinned by the principle that where a parent of a child with SEN, or a young person with SEN, wants a place in a mainstream setting, this must not be denied on the basis
